

Graphic Design Internship - Spring 2023 Kildaire Farm (Cary)

Who are we?

CORRAL is a faith-motivated nonprofit that equips adolescent girls in high-risk situations through a long-term, holistic program of equine therapy and education to prepare each girl and her community with skills, resources, and opportunities so that she can gain access to a bright future.

CORRAL is committed to creating a diverse environment and is proud to be an equal opportunity employer. Diversity is more than a commitment at CORRAL—it is the foundation of what we do. We are fully focused on equity and justice. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply.

Who are you?

We are looking for a highly accountable, passionate, recently-graduated student from a B.S. or B.A. degree program (or currently in the final year.) The non-profit life can get hectic at times, so we need detail-oriented self-starters that aren't afraid to ask questions and think in innovative ways. As a CORRAL intern, you have strong verbal and written communication skills, including public speaking and interpersonal communications. You are willing to resolve conflict and make big decisions. Although we do serious work at the farm, we don't always take ourselves so seriously. You'll thrive in our fun, collaborative space that's filled with supportive people. While our staff loves to work together and so do you, you also possess the ability to work independently with self-direction.

About the Internship

Your time with us will be filled with opportunities to produce meaningful and impactful work. Interns are exposed to a variety of aspects of running a non-profit and are given organizational ownership over their projects. We value growth as a team, so you will work closely with the Creative Manager and Marketing Manager throughout your time at CORRAL. You will also have bi-weekly performance feedback check-ins with your manager to learn and grow as a leader. This position will require approximately 10–15 hours a week, with flexibility within the Monday–Friday day-time office schedule, and during our bi-annual campaigns, you may work 20-30 hours a week.
